Financial Aid Resources on the Web

FAFSA
Federal Application for Financial Aid – Must be completed annually www.fafsa.ed.gov

Loan Entrance Counseling and Promissory Notes
Complete your on-line Loan Entrance and Exit Loan counseling and sign your federal loan promissory notes here. Information and instructions will be provided in your Award Notification Packet. In addition, general information about student loan interest rates, repayment plans, loan servicers, etc. can be found here.
www.studentloans.gov

National Student Loan Data System
The US Department of Education data base listing of all your federal student loans www.nslds.ed.gov

Federal Student Financial Aid Information
General information about federal financial aid fund sources, application procedures, and loan repayment can be found here
www.studentaid.gov

FIRST – Financial Information, Resources, Services and Tools for Medical Education
This is a website maintained by the AAMC that provides a wealth of information regarding financing your medical school education, managing your finances, understanding your loan repayment options and debt management strategies for medical school students and residents.
www.aamc.org/FIRST

Medloans Organizer and Calculator
Developed for medical students and residents, the MLOC provides a secure location to organize and track your loans and then calculate custom repayment plans using your own loan information to help you make smart choices about repayment.
www.aamc.org/services/first/medloans/